There is a land of pure delight arr. Euwe de Jong (Euwe/Sybolt/Rienk/Elbert/Allen)

- Elbert                    1. There is a land of pure delight
Where saints immortal reign
Rienk                    In finite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- Allen                    2. There ever lasting spring abides
And never withering flowers
Death like a narrow sea divides
That heavenly land from ours.
- Elbert                    3. Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green
Elbert/Rienk            So to the Jews old Canaan stood;
While Jordan rolled between.
- Allen                    4. But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross the narrow sea,
And linger shivering on the brink
And fear to launch away.
- Elbert                    5. O could we make our doubts remove Those gloomy doubts that rise
Rienk                    And see the Canaan that we love
With unclouded eyes.
- Allen                    6. Could we but climb where Moses stood
And view the landscape o'er
Not Jordan's stream nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.
